

Crown-style heralding (Consorts announced)

- 1) Receive your cards from the list runner.
- 2) Check to see if another herald has their baton in the air or has begun calling. If not, put your baton up and call your combatants to the list.
 - A) Duke A fighting for Duchess B, and Sir C fighting for Mistress D, present yourselves to the list!
 - B) Count E fighting for Countess F, and Lord G fighting for Lord H, arm and make ready!
 - C) Lady J fighting for Lord K, and Lord L fighting for m'lady M, prepare!
- 3) Announce bye fights to the combatants if told to do so by the Marshal! Bye fights will have an additional card, sometimes fluorescent-colored, sometimes with the word "BYE" written on it.
- 4) Full honours - These phrases are guidelines but the order is important.
 - A) Crown - Combatants, pray honour the Crown of the East!
 - B) Consort - Your honour to the one who inspires you today!
 - C) Crowd - Honour those assembled to watch this combat!
 - D) Combatant - Combatants, honour your most worthy opponent!
- 5) Later round partial honours - Do what honours you will!
- 6) Announce the marshal - If you're ready, pray heed the marshal - and step out of the list!
- 7) Wait until the marshal indicates the fight is over, then announce the winner.
- 8) Put the winner's card on top!!! Tell your list-runner who the winner is as extra confirmation.

Champions-style heralding (no consorts)

- 1) Receive your cards from the list runner.
- 2) Check to see if another herald has their baton in the air or has begun calling. If not, put your baton up and call your combatants to the list.
 - A) Duke A and Sir C, present yourselves to the list!
 - B) Count E and Lord G, arm and make ready!
 - C) Lady J and Lord L, prepare!
- 3) Announce bye fights to the combatants if told to do so by the Marshal! Bye fights will have an additional card, sometimes fluorescent-colored, sometimes with the word "BYE" written on it.
- 4) Full honours - These phrases are guidelines but the order is important.
 - A) Crown - Combatants, pray honour the Crown of the East!
 - B) Consort - Your honour to the one who inspires you today!
 - C) Crowd - Honour those assembled to watch this combat!
 - D) Combatant - Combatants, honour your most worthy opponent!
- 5) Later round partial honours - Do what honours you will!
- 6) Announce the marshal - If you're ready, pray heed the marshal - and step out of the list!
- 7) Wait until the marshal indicates the fight is over, then announce the winner.
- 8) Put the winner's card on top!!! Tell your list-runner who the winner is as extra confirmation.